

The Queensmen of Toronto Male Chorus

is hosting the

AMCO* CHORAL WORKSHOP for Male Voices

With clinician Richard Householder
Professor Emeritus of Music.

& YOU are invited

ALL interested male voices are welcome

Date: Saturday, October 24th, 2015

Location: St. Steven's-on-the-Hill United Church,
988 Indian Rd., Mississauga, ON L5H 1R5

Times: 9:30-10:00am. Registration w/Coffee, Tea, Water
10:15am. Be seated - session begins
3:30pm. Approx. finish time

Clinician: Richard Householder, Professor Emeritus of Music
School of Creative Arts & Music, University of Windsor.

Cost: $25.00 for the whole day; lunch included. Students $10.00

Program:

- Warm-up techniques and diction.
- Learning vocal techniques for adult voices.
- Discover ways to keep the voice comfortable as the voice and body ages.
- Introduction to the Essentials of Sight Reading
- Practise your new skills with different music selections.

You do not have to be a member of a chorus to spend the day with us.

* AMCO – Associated Male Chorus of Ontario

